ACCREDITATION

University of Saint Francis is accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools of the Higher Learning Commission. Some programs within the university also hold accreditation from their professional accrediting agencies. See the current university catalog for other accreditation information.

SCHOOL NAME CHANGES

On May 16, 1998, Lutheran College of Health Professions was acquired by Saint Francis College. On July 1, 1998, Saint Francis College became University of Saint Francis. University of Saint Francis issues transcripts from Lutheran College of Health Professions, Lutheran Hospital School of Nursing, and St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR

The academic calendar has been based on the semester system since 1945. This system may include two semesters of fifteen weeks each, a three-week Mayterm, and two summer sessions which vary in length. The College of Adult Learning has a semester calendar which could include two eight-week sessions or three five-week sessions in one term.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

A minimum of 60 credit hours is required to complete some Associate degrees. A minimum of 120 credit hours is required to complete some Bachelor degrees. Graduate degree requirements vary by department.

GRADING SYSTEM

Prior to August 1999, University of Saint Francis did not use a plus/minus grading system. The following grades and quality points are used in the calculation of grade point averages:

WORK IN PROGRESS

Transcripts for Lutheran College of Health Professions, including work completed before August 1998, may contain plus/minus grades.

REPEATED COURSES

Courses marked with an asterisk (*) are courses that have been repeated. Courses marked with an "R" indicate the most recent attempt at repeating a course. The most recent grade is included in the calculation of grade point averages.

ACADEMIC STANDING

A student with a 2.0 grade point average or above is in good standing. Academic suspension or dismissal is noted on the transcript.

RELEASE OF INFORMATION

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, prohibits the release of this transcript without the written consent of the student.

TRANSCRIPT VALIDATION

Official transcripts bear the embossed seal of the university and the Registrar's signature.
